Study online to be an Early Childhood teacher

Make study work for you. Gain the flexibility to study the Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood Education) when and where it suits you. Studying externally (online) enables you to fit your coursework around existing commitments, so you can achieve your goals and receive the same qualification as you would studying on campus.

With assured placements close to home you will also complete a total of 120 days of workplace learning over the course of your degree.

THE FASTEST WAY TO QUALIFY FOR YOUR DEGREE PART-TIME

JCU's Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood Education) online course is built for students with busy lives. You will study one subject at a time, up to six times a year. Each subject goes for seven weeks, allowing you to focus on a single area of study each time, keeping you motivated and engaged throughout your degree. It also spreads your study load across the year, and you still get 10 weeks of breaks.

By completing six subjects per year, you can complete a Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood Education) in 5.5 years. This is much faster than traditional part-time study in semesters, allowing you to qualify for your degree sooner and maintain family and other commitments.
